

Disability Confidence: Unlocking Inclusive Recruitment

Are you ready to transform your recruitment process into an inclusive powerhouse?

Join this training session and equip yourself with the knowledge and tools to create a recruitment process that's accessible to all candidates.

This training is aimed at Hiring Managers, HR Professionals, and Recruitment Staff.

This session offers a deep dive into the world of disability inclusive recruitment, addressing the opportunities and issues facing disabled people in recruitment. You'll receive practical guidelines from crafting job description creations to onboarding and long-term retention. Key topics covered include -

- Removing barriers from recruitment and selection, and encourage disabled applicants
- Building the confidence of your consultants to refer skilled and talented disabled candidates to your Hiring Managers
- Employing people with different types of disability, the Agencies involved, and technology available to enable employment
- Understanding and implement workplace adjustments.

About the facilitator

Phil Turner, Chief Executive of the NZ Disability Employers' Network, is an experienced and passionate training facilitator. With a strong background in collaborating with leading organisations and disabled individuals across New Zealand, Phil offers a unique blend of lived experiences and business expertise. Prepare to gain valuable insights and practical skills as Phil guides you in fostering inclusive and equitable recruitment.

